

Directors' Network Learning Lunch

H1N1

September 23, 2009

www.flu.gov

New federal guidelines released to child care and early childhood programs respond to influenza during the 2009-2010 flu season.

- * includes a communication toolkit for childcare and early childhood

Elmo teaches healthy habits that help prevent the flu.

www.fairfaxcounty.gov/ofc

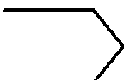

September 2009 update – p. 5 is flu related

<http://www.arlingtonva.us/Portals/Topics/Topics/PandemicFlu.aspx>

Information for Individuals and Families

- Talking to Children about Flu

Notes:

Directors' Network Learning Lunch
H1N1
September 23, 2009

H1N1

www.flu.gov

New federal guidelines released to child care and early childhood programs respond to influenza during the 2009-2010 flu season.

“Child Care and Early Childhood Guidance”

“Technical Report for State and Local Public Health Officials and Child Care and Early Childhood Providers”

“Preparing for the Flu: A Communication Toolkit for Childcare and Early Childhood”

- Questions and Answers about CDC's Guidance on Helping Child Care and Early Childhood Programs Respond to Influenza During the 2009-2010 Season
- Fact Sheet for Parents: Action Steps for Parents to Protect Your Child and Family during the 2009-2010 Flu Season
- Fact Sheet for Parents: Action Steps for Parents of Children at Higher Risk for Flu Complications
- Fact Sheet for Parents: Action Steps for Parents if Child Care or Early Childhood Programs are Closed or Children are Sick and Must Stay Home
- Poster: Stop! Do You Feel Sick?
- Template Letters for Families: If Your Child is Not Feeling Well
- Template Letters for Families: Steps the Child Care or Early Childhood Program is Taking Now
- Template Letters for Families: Child Care or Early Childhood Program is Suspended
- Template Letters for Families: Child Care or Early Childhood Program has Re-Opened
- Additional Resources:
 - § Posters and widgets

Elmo Teaches Healthy Habits that Help Prevent the Flu

Video PSAs

www.fairfaxcounty.gov/ofc

www.foundationsoforfamilies.com

Directors' Network Learning Lunch

H1N1

September 23, 2009

September 2009 update

<http://www.arlingtonva.us/Portals/Topics/TopicsPandemicFlu.aspx>

Information for Individuals and Families

- Talking to Children about Flu

Information for Schools and Child Care Providers

- Child Care and Preschool Planning Checklist (link is broken)

www.foundationsoforfamilies.com